

Have you considered the benefits of having your dividend paid straight into your bank account?

Make Life Easier

Benefits of Electronic Payments

You will benefit:

- Your dividend payment will be credited to your bank account on the payment date, thereby avoiding the risk of delay or loss and the cost of obtaining a replacement cheque;
- You will not have to take or post your dividend payment to your bank for lodgement;
- You will still receive your tax voucher in the post.

The Company will also benefit:

- Printing fewer cheques will save printing costs and is friendly to the environment.

Registering for Electronic Payments

The quickest and most secure approach for shareholders to register for Electronic Payments is to use the online share portal, Signal Shares, provided by CRH's Registrars, Link Registrars Limited (the "Registrar"). You can register for Signal Shares by logging on to www.signalshares.com, selecting CRH plc and clicking on the 'Register an Account' option. Please note, you will need to enter your Investor Code (IVC) (found on documents issued by the Registrars), your UK Postcode (if applicable) and name as part of the registration process.

Once you have created a Signal Shares account, you can register for Electronic Payments by logging on to the share portal, selecting the 'Manage your Account' option followed by the 'Payment Preferences' and 'Change my account preferences' options.

Alternatively, you can send your bank account details to the Registrars by post by completing a Dividend Bank Mandate form. This can be downloaded from Signal Shares or requested from the Registrars. Completed forms should be returned to Link Registrars Limited, Suite 149, The Capel Building, Mary's Abbey, Dublin 7, D07 DP79, Ireland.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: How can I check if I have already registered for Electronic Payments and / or whether my bank account details are up to date and accurate?

A: If you have a Signal Shares account (see "Registering for Electronic Payments") you can check whether you are registered to receive Electronic Payments and / or whether your bank account details are up to date and accurate by logging onto Signal Shares, selecting the 'Manage your Account' option followed by the 'Payment Preferences' option and reviewing your details.

Q: What is the deadline for registering for Electronic Payments?

A: To have your dividend paid direct to your bank account, you will need to register for Electronic Payments prior to the deadline date notified in the announcement of the declaration of the relevant dividend. Any registration received after this date will take effect from the next dividend.

Q: I am resident in a non-Eurozone country. Can I receive my dividend in my local currency?

A: Electronic Payments are made in euro and Pounds Sterling. Dividends are also paid in US Dollars. However, any payment to a shareholder resident outside the European Economic Area (EEA) is made by cheque.

Q: My country is not included in the list of countries to which Electronic Payments can be made on the Signal Shares portal. Can I receive my dividend electronically?

A: Shareholders resident outside the EEA cannot currently register for Electronic Payments and will, therefore, receive any dividend by way of cheque to their residential address as recorded on CRH's Register of Members.
