CRH appoints Danilo Juvane as Head of Investor Relations

NEW YORK – May 26, 2026 – CRH (NYSE: CRH), the leading provider of building materials, announced the appointment of Danilo Juvane as Head of Investor Relations, effective May 26, 2026.

Juvane brings 25 years of capital markets experience to the role, having most recently served as Vice President of Corporate Development, Investor Relations & ESG for The Williams Companies. He has also served as an analyst with BMO Capital Markets, Kayne Anderson Capital Advisors, and Entergy Services Inc.

Juvane will lead CRH's investor relations function, overseeing shareholder engagement, and communicating the company's strategy and value proposition to investors. He succeeds Tom Holmes, who is moving into a senior leadership role within CRH's strategy division.

"We are pleased to welcome Danilo to CRH," said Jim Mintern, CEO, CRH. "He brings a strong track record to the role and his wealth of experience in U.S. financial markets will be invaluable to CRH as we continue to execute our growth strategy and expand our shareholder base. I also want to take the opportunity to thank Tom for his leadership and the pivotal role he has played in strengthening investor relations at CRH since joining in 2014."
